

A photograph of a security camera mounted on a light-colored brick wall. The camera is a dark, dome-shaped device with a lens pointing downwards. A black wire is visible, running from the camera and looping around the wall. The text 'CAMERA VERANDA 1' is overlaid in red, with 'CAMERA VERANDA' on the top line and '1' centered below it. The wall is made of rectangular bricks with dark mortar lines. The background shows a clear sky and some power lines.
